

Course: TV Production

Tutor: Mr. Sameer Mbaraka Ahmed

Contact: 0657111184 or Mbarakasameer8@gmail.com

Class: Ordinary Diploma

Television Production

The dream of seeing distant places is as old as the human imagination. Priests in ancient Greece studied the entrails of birds, trying to see in them what the birds had seen when they flew over the horizon. They believed that their gods, sitting in comfort on Mount Olympus, were gifted with the ability to watch human activity all over the world. And the opening scene of William Shakespeare's play Henry IV, Part I introduces the character Rumour, upon whom the other characters rely for news of what is happening in the far corners of England.

Here is what we are going to learn throughout this course

- The knowledge of various TV equipment in journalism operations
- Using TV equipment to produce TV content
- How to set light for TV production
- Describing Television Programs
- Television Production Crew
- Television Production process
- Writing the Script
- Describing standard setup of television Studio
- Describe the presentation skills in TV Broadcasting

Class assessments will be done through

Assignment 1 = 10 marks

Assignment 2 = 10 marks

Presentation = 10 marks

Midterm test = 20 marks

Participation = 10 marks

A total of 60 marks will be collected

Here are the moral codes that will guide us through the semester

- Respect. here everyone must respect each one during the class or outside
- Listening. Whether you like it or not when someone in the class is allowed to speak we all must be quite and listen. Remember, listening is the basic fundamental in learning.
- Observe time. everyone must observe time when enter the class or submitting the assignment or task
- No excuses. the crucial rule, make sure you force your brain into finding solutions on every problem, if you find difficulties on anything then follow the next and last code
- Communicate. You are not a tree to accept anything that thrown at you. As much as you are a human being you have to communicate, you have been given a speech for a reason so speak out; make sure you communicate well with everyone in my class including me.

Fine and bonuses

- Any attempt to break one of the code, a point of one mark will be deducted in your coursework
- Attempt to break more than one or all code will result on 5 marks deduction on your course work
- 2 marks or more will be given to anyone who show a relentless effort to attempt his or her task
- Problem solvers will be considered 1 mark or more
- Great participation in class and outside the class will be given bonuses too

Best wishes and have fun